Approximately 18 hours self-paced learning per week (discuss with Training Coordinator)

Assessment

Students will be assessed using a range of assessment methods including written assessments, practical assessment, project work, oral presentation, (discuss with Training Coordinator) participation in class discussions and workplace assessment.

Practical Placement

Practical placement is a vital part of the course which allows the student to practice their knowledge and skills in the workplace. Students are required to undertake 120 hours of practical placement during the course. Students are encouraged to organise their own placement, or NRCHI can assist coordinate placement for students.

Entry Requirements

There are no pre-requisite requirements for individual units of competency. North Ringwood Community House has set the following entry requirements for enrolment in this course:

- An interview is required prior to enrolment
- Suitable level of language, literacy and numeracy
- Victorian Police Check
- Ability to commit to 120 hours of practical placement

Assessment Method

Assessment will be via a combination of:

- Written tasks
- Observation in the workplace
- Supervisor reports
- Oral questions if required

Accredited training is assessed against a specified benchmark and is Competency based. This means that no marks are given and students are assessed as either “Satisfactory” or “Not Yet Satisfactory” If a student is deemed Not Yet Satisfactory there is at least one chance to resubmit the work.

All tasks must be satisfactorily completed in order to gain Competency in the unit. In addition, some units cannot have the assessment result finalised until the student has completed a specified number of placement hours.

Accreditation/Certification

North Ringwood Community House Inc is an Accredited Training Organisation, No. 6434. This course is nationally recognised and accredited. On completion of the course you will receive a testamur for the qualification.
